

Babar Ayyaz Malik
Masters in Business Administration
2003-05
Head of Corporate Business Unit
The Bank of Punjab

“It was a wonderful experience in Superior with full of learning and so much fun. It really shaped my career with knowledge, positive attitude and professional grooming”

Babar is working as CBU Head in the Bank of Punjab, a corporate and investment Banking Group, based in Head Office Lahore. His main responsibilities include corporate lending and looking after a portfolio of Rs.25 billion approximately including funded and non funded facilities. The major part of his job is consolidating corporate portfolio while extending financial facilities to industries and large business houses.